Remember all those things we use to talk about. You've always helped me in every-thing I do. I may not be the smartest girl in any class but I know when I like some-one. I hope to get straightened out in school work but I'll need someone like you to help me. I hope to be friends with you always. Next to mother and daddy and my brothers you come first.

I can remember when I use to tell you my troubles about Kenny. I always got straightened out.

God Bless you!
